Kenneth R. Wilson Awards are co-produced by the Canadian Business Press and Magazines Canada

MAGAZINE OF THE YEAR

MAGAZINE DE L'ANNÉE

The Kenneth R. Wilson Awards is pleased to announce three finalists for the much anticipated Magazine of the Year award, given to the magazine that combines excellence in content and design, follows its mission and consistently engages with, and serves the needs of, its readers.

Our three finalists are:

Alberta Oil

From the judges:

A magazine appealing to the senior executives of the energy sector in Alberta and the rest of Canada, Alberta Oil combines high-quality photography, illustration and graphics, and in-depth coverage on “the business of energy.” Its attention to detail makes for a strong visual and editorial statement, offering a look at every aspect of this vital industry.

Precedent

From the judges:

Engaging, entertaining and different—Precedent attracts the young lawyer with its balance of law and lifestyle stories. The magazine uses clean design, captivating photography, charticles and illustrations while addressing both professional and personal issues. As the first independent legal publication in Ontario, Precedent manages to combine both aspects of a lawyer’s life in an appealing way.

Salon Magazine

From the judges:

By using creative approaches to its articles, Salon manages to keep a sometimes repetitive subject matter fresh and engaging. Clever display, case studies and a strong overall design make this magazine appropriate for its stylish audience. Salon provides its readers with practical advice and even uses a comic strip to illustrate improving salon service and business skills.
